Business Arising & General Business:

1. Planning Scheme Amendment IMAS land – discussion postponed until Jill returns
2. Newsletter programme for 2019 – first edition to be distributed March 23/24. Discussion of ideas for the upcoming edition and throughout the year
3. 50 Communities Project – Janette advised the committee that this is awaiting return after the holidays. The com is interested in exploring the possibility of a more comprehensive warning system.
4. Petitions – Maureen to lodge
5. Support for Firefighters – Maureen proposed acknowledging our local volunteer firefighters in some way, discussion settled on a piece in the newsletter and a card and gift which Maureen will give to them at their training on a Tuesday evening at the end of March.
6. Louise Hinsby reserve – Liz and Fiona to work on an interpretive panel acknowledging Louise Hinsby's gift to the community and making it clear this land belongs to the public. Seek Jill's input regarding council approval.

Other Business:

1. Maureen made a suggestion that we hold a musical evening next summer. To be discussed at the next meeting.

Maureen has had feedback from some in the community that there is confusion between the community association and the Good Karma Network.

2. Alison asked what is happening at the Bowls Club, she has heard they have lost their chef.

3. Anne told the committee that the Picnic Basket has sold, building and lease sold.

4. Roger observed that people using the dog beach are adhering to the zone correctly. Signage is still inadequate and Roger thought there was not dog bag dispenser nearby.

Financial Report:

On February 1st 2019 the TCA had a balance of $1979.84

Since my report of 25th November 2018, we have had 13 new members and a donation of $10.

Cheque 527085 for a donation of $200 to Plasticwise Taroona has not been presented yet so our 'real' balance is $1779.84.

There are currently 62 financial members.

Trailer registration of $81.08, Maureen moved we approve a cheque for this payment, seconded Alison.
