Business Arising & General Business:

1. Planning Scheme Amendment IMAS land –
TCA remains concerned that the implications of any amendment are not properly understood. Deputy General Manager of council has said he will keep us informed of developments in relation to this.
Initially we will seek advice from a planner, Jill to make enquiries. Then, if concerned, we agreed to lobby council in advance of their consideration.
Foreshore bush land has been offered to the Kingborough Council but at KCCF there was discussion about managing fire risk and TCA are worried about loss of trees in this process
- 2.
3. discussion postponed until Jill returns
4. Newsletter programme for 2019 – first edition to be distributed March 23/24. Discussion of ideas for the upcoming edition and throughout the year
5. 50 Communities Project – Janette advised the committee that this is awaiting return after the holidays. The com is interested in exploring the possibility of a more comprehensive warning system.
6. Petitions – Maureen to lodge

7. Support for Firefighters – Maureen proposed acknowledging our local volunteer firefighters in some way, discussion settled on a piece in the newsletter and a card and gift which Maureen will give to them at their training on a Tuesday evening at the end of March.
8. Louise Hinsby reserve – Liz and Fiona to work on an interpretive panel acknowledging Louise Hinsby's gift to the community and making it clear this land belongs to the public. Seek Jill's input regarding council approval.

Other Business:

1. Maureen made a suggestion that we hold a musical evening next summer. To be discussed at the next meeting.
Maureen has had feedback from some in the community that there is confusion between the community association and the Good Karma Network.
2. Alison asked what is happening at the Bowls Club, she has heard they have lost their chef.
3. Anne told the committee that the Picnic Basket has sold, building and lease sold.
