Sea Dragon Guardian

Creating the new mythology
An Intergenerational project with Mary's Grange, Men's Shed Kingston and community members, facilitated and dreaming by Helen Quilty, renowned local artist and resident.

"Let us weave our creative magic to build a new dragon for Tarooona, Paint his body, use rings and strings and other things.

He will wear a garland of seaweed and seashore bounty to be his mane. Jewell colours of glistening scales that sparkle in the rain.

Our magic we will give him, a fearless roar and eyes that blaze like coals in the fire of his breath." Helen Quilty

FIRE CEREMONY BY THE TAROONA SCOUTS AND STORIES AROUND THE CAMP FIRE.

Skate Park ART event from 10 will include live street art performance, skating, workshop and display of youth art.

Get involved!

Bring a t-shirt or bag print onto with original stencil art supported by Rory Dick, award winning stencil artist, or decorate your helmet, skateboard or bike with hand cut vinyl stickers.

Labyrinth for Tarooona Foreshore

Interest has been sparked to create a permanent labyrinth on the Tarooona Foreshore. To initiate this project Mark Healy, Magic Pathman and Judy Keen, local labyrinth specialist will be creating an ephemeral labyrinth.

Everyone is encouraged to bring flowers to decorate the path while mosaic tiles will adorn the centre.

Labyrinths are found to date back 2000years. Some scientific research has credited walking labyrinths with physical and mental healing and general wellbeing.

In the future we hope to all be involved in creating a permanent site for relaxation, contemplation and meditation.

If you are able to provide vouchers or awards, in-kind support or if you have craft materials or experience that may be helpful for our event please contact us using the contact form on the contents of our website page or email tarooonaarttrail@gmail.com

How the seed was planted:

"As a young girl I used to spend most weekends at Tarooona Beach with my family walking along the foreshore, exploring, climbing rocks, running amuck, adventuring and playing in the surrounding bush land.

Fast track 15 years or so and frequent trips overseas and a long stint on the mainland of Australia, I found myself back in this little oasis with my own toddlers in hand, who now enjoy exploring the Tarooona foreshore, climbing rocks, adventuring and playing.

Recently on one of these walks I mused there was something amiss. I thought about how wonderful it would be to have a community event celebrating this wonderful space and showcasing our unique environment to the greater community, like an 'open day' of the Tarooona Foreshore. Once I got home, out came the butcher paper and scrambling together of pen to paper. Numerous word documents followed and after many conversations, discussions and ramblings, the Tarooona Art Trail seed was planted....."

Ruth Butler

The Art Trail has now blossomed into an exciting and wide spreading celebration for all. Commencing this year and expected to run bi-annually the response and support from community groups, individuals and council has been overwhelming.

"This issue of the Tarooona News is entirely dedicated to promoting the forthcoming Tarooona Art Trail and community celebration on 19 November 2016, organised by a small and dedicated group of residents who have formed the Tarooona Arts Trail committee.

The Tarooona Art Trail is a community event brought to you by the Tarooona Environment Network. It is supported by a range of local community organisations and by Kingborough Council through a community grant. The Tarooona Community Association is assisting this initiative with help for event promotion. Participants are invited to create an ephemeral sculpture, installation or artwork to share with the community. It can be inspired by the landscape, memories or new experiences. It may be a shared creation!

If you want to know more about how you can be involved in the lead up to the big day – read on. You can also go to the Tarooona Art Trail website taroonaartrail.weebly.com which is packed with information.

Get inspired and find out how you can be involved in workshops and create a sculpture to enter into the event and participate on the day. Be sure to get in early! – Jill Hickie (President, Tarooona Community Association)
